

Dear Mildred - It is sort of cold here I seem to have taken more cold - Seems like it just can't warm up for summer.
I'll have a few peonies tho' for Dec, about a dozen pink ones and just a few red ones. The glads are up nice I hoed them yesterday - I think I'll buy a red rose & put it out on her birthday Emory will be here and he will help. I also am going to put an extra bouquet on Roy's grave for her after all - I feel she is with him & anyway she, the June that was ours, is not in any grave no I can't think that, So I'll just make the gesture & no one else will know. I can see those flowers of hers, hanging in your closet - Maybe sometime later you can reach out one or two & get started wearing them - Emory sent me a picture of the two of them that some one took the day they went to C. City Some kids had picked her a bunch of violets & she held them in her hand

It's a very poor picture but the last one she ever had taken, I have to send it back to him as its the only one he has but it wouldn't do you any good to see it -

I like the color you selected for your new room - Wish I could help you shop for your rug etc

Mrs Michaelson plans to be here this week end if she is able. She purly won't be up to a trip of about 10 hours when she's just home from the trip.

I keep hoping she'll postpone it till the rest have gone & I won't be so worried - Cathie & the kids are at her folks & Don coming next week - The bed is still like yours &

Marian made it up - Mark is real cute & not afraid of anything he laughs all the time - They sure are proud of him, He's so big tho' for nine months & strong as an ox.

Well I feel weak & weary & will lie down a while Lots of love C
